Attention No-Fault Patients

Your No-Fault carrier is entitled to have you examined by a doctor they choose. This is called an “Independent Medical Examiner.”

The independent medical exam may result in the No-Fault carrier denying a payment or denying all future benefits.

Results from your exam may take 3-4 weeks to process. If it is found that no further treatment is necessary, the denial may take effect on the date of the examination and not on the date you or your providers are notified.

Therefore, continuing therapy during this time may result in you, the patient being held responsible for unpaid visits.

In order to avoid getting billed for visits not covered by No-Fault, please inform your providers about your scheduled IME as soon as possible.

You may also want to contact your insurance for more information.

I authorize payment of medical benefits to the Physical Therapy Experience, PLLC. For professional services described. I authorize the release of any medical or other information to process this claim. I understand that I will be held responsible for any amount not covered by my insurance.
